

Ailevon Pacific Aviation Consulting Welcomes Andrew Pierini

Atlanta, GA., February 12, 2024 - Ailevon Pacific Aviation Consulting is delighted to announce the appointment of Andrew Pierini as a Director. Andrew will spearhead a range of Air Service Development projects for both domestic and international clients, while contributing to the enhancement of internal capabilities.

Andrew brings a wealth of experience to Ailevon Pacific, spanning various facets of the aviation industry, including airports, airlines, and aircraft sales and marketing. In his most recent position as Executive Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer at Tulsa International Airport (TUL), he played a key role in driving and maximizing aeronautical and non-aeronautical business development. Under his leadership, TUL added twelve new nonstop destinations from four carriers, earning accolades such as Overall Winner at the 2023 Routes Americas Awards and finalist at the 2023 World Routes Awards.

Before his tenure at TUL, Andrew held significant roles at The Boeing Company, where he supported global sales campaigns and consulted with airlines on route network expansion and fleet requirements. His prior experience at Southwest Airlines in Network Planning focused on network strategy and capacity planning both domestically and internationally.

Andrew is an alumnus of the University of Oklahoma, holding a Bachelor of Science degree in Aviation Management, and Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, where he earned a Master of Business Administration in Aviation.

Brad DiFiore, Managing Director at Ailevon Pacific Aviation Consulting, expressed excitement about Andrew joining the team, stating, "We've worked closely with Andrew over the span of his career, and we know he has what it takes to be a top-notch Air Service Development Consultant."

Oliver Lamb, Managing Director, added, "Andrew's diverse commercial aviation experience will be invaluable as our clients navigate an ever-changing industry. We are thrilled he is joining our team of Air Service Development professionals!"
